Marubeni India, New Delhi office participates in “Come, Clean India Campaign”

The staff members of Marubeni India, New Delhi office participated and contributed in the “Come Clean India Campaign”, CSR activity organised by IMAGINDIA on January 15, 2015 to commemorate the centennial anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi ‘s return to India & celebrate the values of Mahatma Gandhi (Father of the Nation) .

A team of total 11 employees from Marubeni India led by the Director & General Manager Mr. Hitoshi Okamura volunteered for the campaign and cleaned the New Delhi Railway station together with other Japanese companies participants. Approximately 400 volunteers from 35 different companies including 60 Japanese nationals participated in the event.

The highlight was seeing the full enthusiasm of Mr. Okamura, a Japanese national contributing for Clean India campaign.
